Structures for Children and Young People's Services Committees

Children and Young People's Services Committees and National Outcomes

Each Committee develops and implements an interagency 3 year Children and Young People's Plan for the County (CYPP), which is:

- Designed to improve outcomes for children and young people in their area
- Based on the 5 National Outcomes for children and young people in Ireland
- The CYPP includes:

1.

- Socio-demographic profile

2.

- Audit of services

3.

- Needs analysis

4.

- Action plan

5.

- Review & monitoring

Children and Young People

Consultation with children and young people is an integral part of the development of Children and Young People Plans.

This is manifested through cooperative work with Child and Youth Councils (called Comhairle na nÓg) and additional activities undertaken by a CYPSC and its members.

Benefits of CYPSCs

CYPSC as a catalyst for reform within services

Mobilisation of CYPSC member organisations – efficiently and effectively: “Making links fast”

Improved understanding of each others’ organisations and roles

Accountability to each other

A sense of camaraderie and development of trust between members

County level evidence and information used to inform service development

Leveraging funding

Vehicle for all member organisations’ interagency work

Challenges

- Leadership
- Sustaining momentum
- Data

In practice

- Start Right – Limerick CYPSC
- Fingal Parenting Initiative – Fingal CYPSC, Dublin
- Junior Transition Programme – Kildare CYPSC
- Literacy & Early Years – Wicklow CYPSC

Evidence informed approach

- Using emerging evidence in a structured way
- Interagency approach –
Effective interagency working acts to create the 'permitting circumstances' for better functioning of front-line services and front-line staff. (Statham, 2011)
- Learning from other structures nationally and in other jurisdictions
- Consultation with children and young people

Working Together

When we work together we can make a positive difference to the lives of our children and young people.

Working together in a sustained way is challenging, takes time and requires continuous learning; but it's worth it.

We are doing this through Children and Young People's Services Committees....
